

Lesson 50

Read Chapter 12:1-2 and answer the following questions.

12 Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect. (NASB)

1. Paul urges or beseeches the brethren by the “mercies of God.” What are the mercies of God he is referring to?
2. How do you present your body as a living and holy sacrifice that is acceptable to God?
3. How does our “spiritual service of worship” differ from past types of service or worship?
4. What does it mean and how do we become conformed to this world?
5. What does transformed mean and what are we to be transformed to?
6. How do we renew our minds?
7. What is the will of God and how do we prove it?
8. What is good? What is acceptable? What is perfect?
