

Titus Lesson 10

Read verses 15 of Titus Chapter 2 and answer the following questions.

“These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.” NASB

Titus 2:15 (WEY)

¹⁵ Thus speak, exhort, reprove, with all impressiveness. Let no one make light of your authority.

1. Pick out the three verbs here and describe their growing intensity?
2. How would you summarize verses 11-14?
3. So few believers submit to these exhortations, did the Lord Jesus anticipate this. Reaad Luke 17:11-19 for your answer.
4. What makes Titus 2:11-14 notable for its balance between doctrine and living?
5. What was the basis of Paul urging Titus to speak, exhort, and rebuke?
6. Where does a minister’s authority rest?
7. Is there opposition to speaking from God?
8. How does this verse combat this opposition?
9. What is the standard for man to live Godly lives?
10. Darby said, “When paradise ended the world began, man having departed from God and being given up to his own desires.”. How does the world treat eternal life?
