

1 TIMOTHY LESSON 20

Read Chapter 4: verses 6-11 and answer the following questions

- 1. What tells us if Timothy has been doing a good job?
- 2. What are some of the fables mentioned here?
- 3. Are there in Christianity what we would describe as fables today? Talk about some.
- 4. Are we to enter into long debates about the validity of such tales? How should we treat these fables?
- 5. How would you describe, “discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness”?
- 6. Define the concept of exercise?
- 7. How much spiritual value is there in physical exercise?
- 8. To what extent is godliness profitable?
- 9. Where is the only Life?
- 10. How much effort are we to expend in pursuing godliness?
- 11. Is the hope referred to here sort of wishing that the living God will do something?
- 12. Does the phrase “on the living God, who is the Savior of all men” mean He will save everybody?
