

RESURRECTION

UNDERSTANDING THE RESURRECTION AS IT RELATES TO GOD.

God is no longer dealing with man as He had been dealing with him (Adam) before Jesus, working upon man, making judgment of him; that is over.

UNDERSTANDING THE RESURRECTION AS IT RELATES TO CHRIST.

Christ has opened the way for God to express His heart to His full satisfaction.

UNDERSTANDING THE RESURRECTION AS IT RELATES TO THE BELIEVER WITH GOD.

Acceptance with God never alters, nor can it be improved.

Our own enjoyment of it will improve, but you cannot improve God's acceptance.

UNDERSTANDING THE RESURRECTION AS IT RELATES TO THE POWER OF EVIL.

Christ in rising from the dead has overcome all the power of evil.

A Man in the Person of Christ has overcome all the power of Satan;

UNDERSTANDING THE RESURRECTION AS IT RELATES TO ALL CREATION.

- When we see the resurrection as it is for God to us, that He can receive us in fullest affection and favor, because of Christ who glorified Him, bearing the judgment on man.
- He has given us the Spirit, so that we can say, The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
- Christ also is superior to all the power of evil, and He is the beginning of the creation of God, and He will make all things new
